It was a beautiful sunny afternoon. Alan was at school. It was nearly the end of the class. Miss Brown, the teacher, said, “Now ..., homework! Tomorrow we’re going to start our project on newspapers. Who can bring a newspaper to school?” Most of the children raised their hands. Alan raised his hand, too.

“Good!” said Miss Brown. “Don’t forget, because we’re going to look at all the newspapers tomorrow. On Wednesday we’re going to start our own classroom newspaper!” The bell rang. It was the end of the class.

Alan walked home with Sandra. She was his neighbor and his best friend. They stopped at the newsstand and bought a newspaper for school. The headline said, “Counterfeit Money in Rocky City.”

“That’s here!” said Sandra. “Do you have any counterfeit money, Alan?” “I don’t have any money at all,” he answered. “Real or counterfeit!” They laughed.

Answer the questions.

1. What are the children going to do tomorrow?
2. Who is Sandra?
3. What was the story on the front page of the newspaper?
