From my diary

I went to see a movie yesterday. It was Harry Potter. The movie was very good and I enjoyed it. I hope there will be more Harry Potter movies. There are several Harry Potter books, so I think there will be more movies. Children all over the world are reading about Harry Potter. The stories were written by an English woman. She was very poor and wrote them to earn money to feed her children. Now she is a very rich writer. The Harry Potter books have sold more copies than any other children's books. I am not the only one who likes the books a lot.
