Sam went to Vietnam with his father. His mother and younger brother are picking them up at the airport.

Brian: Sam! Dad!
Mom: Welcome back! We missed you!
Sam: Thanks. We missed you, too.
Mom: How was your trip to Vietnam?
Dad: It was terrible. We both got very sick.
Sam: Yeah, I was disappointed. There were so many things to do, but we were too sick.
Brian: That’s too bad. Next time we can all go together.

Now they are driving home from the airport.

Brian: Did you buy me a present?
Dad: Of course. We got you both something.
Brian: Can we have them now?
Dad: No. You have to wait. The presents are in my suitcase, and it’s in the trunk.
Brian: Hurry up, Mom! Drive faster!
Mom: Okay! Okay! Calm down, Brian.

Ahoy, Friend!

My name is Abbott. I am twelve years old, and I live in Gibraltar. Can you find it on a map? It is very small, and it touches Spain.

I am writing this letter because I want to make a new friend in another country. Maybe you will come to Gibraltar some day. I love it here! We have a lot of interesting things to see and do. Many people come here on vacation. I suggest hiking up the Rock of Gibraltar. The view is beautiful. You can also see wild monkeys. They are cute and friendly.

Where do you live? How old are you? What do you recommend about your country? Do you want to visit Gibraltar some day?
