

Unit 1 Sports Day

The last _____ is a race.

It is about to _____.

Mike, John, Sam, and Fred are _____ at the line.

They all look excited.

Their _____ comes up.

"Are you ready to race?" he asks.

The boys _____ nod.

"1... 2... 3... Go!" Coach shouts, blowing the _____.

Everyone _____ _____ Fred starts running.

"Fred! Why aren't you _____?" Coach asks.

"_____ my number is 4," answers Fred.

Unit 2 A Special Gift

One day, a _____ heard her farm friends talking.

The _____ said, "I lay eggs for the farmer's wife."

The _____ said, "I give milk for the farmer."

The robin said, "I sing _____ songs for the farmer's family."

The butterfly didn't have a _____.

She wanted to go off to _____ alone.

But the farmer's kids kept _____ her.

They were _____.

Then the butterfly _____ something.

Her gift was giving _____ to them.

Unit 3 Whose Home?

Wilma wanted to make a _____, so she went to the beach.

She looked for _____ and found a beautiful one.

Then Wilma saw a _____ digging in the sand.

"Is this _____?" Wilma asked.

"It was _____," said the crab.

"But I grew too _____, so I left it.

You can _____ it."

Wilma was _____.

Now she had a _____ shell and a great _____ to tell her parents!

Unit 4 A Birthday Surprise

Danny Nickerson had a _____ problem.

His mom wanted to _____ him up.

For Danny's _____, his mother asked people to _____ cards to him.

People started sending birthday cards.

And they _____ sending them!

The cards _____ from all over the world.

Danny _____ more than 150,000 birthday cards in the mail!

He and his mom couldn't _____ it.

Danny had the best 6th birthday _____.

Unit 5 Fun on the Water

Last _____, I went on a new _____ with my family.

We went sailing on the _____!

At first, big _____ made our _____ roll from side to side.

I started to feel _____.

Later, we located a great _____ spot.

The waves were much smaller there.

I easily caught two _____.

My brother didn't _____ any.

He was unhappy _____ of that.

But he enjoyed my fish for dinner!

Unit 6 Who Has Milk?

We get _____ from cows and goats.

One cow _____ about 100 cups of milk each day.

One goat gives _____ than 20 cups of milk each day.

Try them _____.

Do they taste _____?

In fact, cow's milk has a _____ amount of natural sugar.

Some people feel _____ drinking it.

Goat's milk has a lower _____ of natural _____.

It is _____ for some people to drink.

Unit 7 A Visit to the Doctor

My sister had a high _____.

Dad took her to see a _____.

I had to go, _____.

After the _____, Dad and the doctor talked and talked!

My _____ and I got bored.

So I helped my sister _____ reading.

My sister read the _____ on the eye chart.

I told her the ones she read _____.

Then the doctor _____, "Your son needs glasses."

That is how my bad _____ was found!

Unit 8 Our City

Billy and his father were walking down the _____.

"Dad," Billy said, "can you _____ what the _____ building in our city is?"

"_____ Hall?" asked Billy's father.

"Nope!" said Billy.

"Is it my _____ building?"

"Guess _____."

"Is it the new _____ building?" asked his father.

"No, it isn't!" said Billy.

"I give up. What is the tallest _____?"

"It's the _____," said Billy, "because it has the most stories!"

Unit 9 The Candy Man

Milton Hershey found a _____ he liked and worked hard at it.

Hershey made _____ and _____.

He started his own _____ at the age of 19.

His first two candy shops were _____.

But he _____ from his mistakes and kept on trying.

His third _____ was a success!

It _____ him a _____ man.

After that, he built a _____ and a town, Hershey, Pennsylvania!

Unit 10 The Hungry Squirrel

Sam the Squirrel loved to visit Ann's _____.

Ann always put out some _____ nuts for Sam.

One day, Sam _____ to try something new.

Sam saw red _____ growing in the garden.

They looked _____.

Sam took a _____ of one.

His mouth became hotter and _____!

His _____ began to hurt.

He felt _____.

Little did he know, he had eaten a red hot _____!

Poor Sam!

Unit 11 A Good Pet

Rats are very _____.

They make _____ pets.

You can _____ both male and female rats as pets.

You can get them when they are five _____ old.

A pet rat will _____ _____ for about two years.

Don't get just one.

_____ two male or two female rats.

Rats like to live _____.

But don't buy a male and a female to live together.

They might _____ a lot of _____!

Unit 12 Dad's Work

My father is my _____.

He works hard in a _____ factory.

His _____ are _____ and full of cracks.

I know he is _____ after work.

But he always helps me with my _____ in the evenings.

After doing homework, we read the _____ and _____ about it.

I have a _____ to hear stories from _____ the world!

I would love to spend every day with him.

He's my hero!

Unit 13 All Dressed Up

Sarah was _____.

It was her first day as a _____.

Sarah put on nice _____ and her favorite _____ polka-dot shirt.

Then Sarah left for school. Her first _____ was great!

Sarah's students paid close _____ to her.

They _____ a lot of fun together.

As Sarah was leaving the classroom, a _____ came up to her.

"Teacher, you are so _____," he said.

"You look just like a _____!"

Unit 14 Making Money

Lisa worked all _____.

She did _____ at home.

She watered _____ and changed the toilet paper.

Lisa pulled _____ and _____ lawns for her neighbors.

She baked _____ and made _____ to sell.

Lisa earned $1,185.

"I'm going to _____ some children in Africa. I need to make more money." said Lisa.

After a _____ sale, she collected _____ money to help them.

"Lisa, where's your bed?" cried her mom.

Unit 15 Husbands and Wives

Ann and John Betar are _____ and wife.

They _____ married in 1932.

They have been _____ for over eighty-three years!

They are the longest-married _____ in America.

What's their _____ to a happy marriage?

"_____ one another," answered Ann.

"And _____ agreeing with your _____," added John.

The world _____ for the longest marriage is eighty-six years.

You're _____ to the world record,

Ann and John!

Unit 16 A Volcano

_____ a volcano.

Are you thinking of a _____?

A volcano is a _____ of mountain.

But it isn't _____ a mountain.

It has a _____ hole inside it.

This _____ goes miles down into the earth.

There is hot _____ rock there.

Sometimes a _____ shoots this liquid rock out the hole.

Then we say the volcano is _____.

The largest active volcano on _____ is in Hawaii.