

Unit 1. A Cool Place to Stay

Do you know any _____ buildings?

Every _____ in Canada, a building is made of ice.

It's also made of _____.

This _____ is a hotel.

In the ice _____, the walls and roof are made of both ice and snow.

The _____, tables, and flower vases are made of ice.

The ice hotel _____ for _____ in January.

If you want to _____, make sure you go before the ice melts in April.

It'll be a _____ adventure. You'll never forget it!

Unit 2. A Man and His Dream

John Chapman, called "Johnny Appleseed," was a _____ man.

He _____ for other people before himself.

John did not have _____ things.

He often wore _____ and slept in the forest.

He gave people whatever they _____: his jacket or even his food!

He _____ a lot and always carried a bag filled with apple seeds.

He got them from cider _____.

John's _____ was to produce many apples.

And he did!

John _____ thousands of trees in the early 1800s.

He is still _____ about today.

Unit 3. Free to Fly

Some people want to keep _____ as pets.

But don't _____ them when they come to _____ your garden.

Some people want to keep butterflies in _____.

A jar is too _____ for a butterfly.

Actually, even a big room is too _____!

Butterflies need to be _____ to fly where they want.

Butterflies live _____ a few weeks.

That's not _____ time for a pet.

It's best to allow these beautiful _____ to remain free.

Enjoy them in a garden instead of catching them!

Unit 4. Work Around the House

Mom _____ at Grandmother.

With a _____, she shouts, "Mom, I've got to go to work.

Will you clean the _____?"

Loudly, Grandmother says, "I'm busy _____.

But that toilet does need a _____!"

Susan knows Mom will _____ her next.

She _____ cleaning the bathroom!

Susan yells, "Mom, have you seen the _____? I'm cleaning my room."

Mom points to the hall _____.

Susan is clever for avoiding her least _____ chore!

Or is she?

Perhaps Mom planned for Susan to clean her room?

Unit 5. Penguin Power

You may have seen _____ before.

They are _____ that walk on land.

Maybe you have seen them _____ in the water.

Most birds fly, but penguins don't _____ in the sky.

_____, they "fly" in the water!

Penguins _____ most of their time in the water.

They eat _____, squid, and small fish.

They use their _____ to dive and swim in the deep water.

They also use their _____ beaks to catch their food.

Penguins look _____, but watch out!

They are serious hunters!

Unit 6. A Delicious Treat

You _____ don't know Frank Epperson.

But maybe you have _____ his invention.

Frank invented the first _____ treat, the Popsicle.

He did it when he was only _____ years old.

Frank _____ left a cup of soda outside with a stick in it.

It was _____ that night.

The next day, he _____ the soda frozen in the cup.

He grabbed the _____ and tried some.

It was _____ and refreshing.

Thanks to Frank, now we have cool _____ for hot summers!

Unit 7. Down on the Farm

Ed went to _____ his friend Joe.

Joe lived on a _____.

When Joe saw Ed, he said, "What's up, Ed? You look so _____."

Ed replied to him, "I need to talk to you, Joe. I have some _____. It's kind of a secret."

"Then let's go in the _____," suggested Joe.

"It's not _____ to _____ out here," he added.

"Why not?" _____ Ed.

"I never _____ secrets around the crops, Ed.

The _____ have eyes, and the corn has ears . . ."

Unit 8. Brotherly Love

Hank's brother needed an _____.

The doctor asked Hank to give _____ for his brother.

Hank said he _____.

The _____ told Hank, "Don't worry, little guy."

The nurse put a _____ in Hank's arm.

Hank's blood _____ to fill a bag.

"How long _____ I die?" he asked.

_____, the nurse said, "You won't die, little guy.

Your _____ make more blood all the time."

Hank didn't _____ that.

But out of love, he was ready to give his life to help his brother.

Unit 9. A Garden Tip

Not all bugs are _____ to a garden.

_____ help garden plants.

Do you want to _____ more bees to your garden?

First, choose the right _____!

Bees like yellow, blue, and _____ flowers.

Flowers that bloom in _____ seasons are good, too.

Then bees can visit the garden in spring, _____, and autumn.

Also, try not to use _____ in your garden.

Poison _____ away not only bad bugs, but also bees!

It is _____ not to use poison at all in your garden.

Unit 10. A Great Man

Nelson Mandela did great _____ during his life.

However, he had to _____ many years in prison.

Mandela was _____ in South Africa in 1918.

He was _____.

In South Africa, blacks were _____ as a lower class of people than whites.

Mandela tried to _____ the laws in South Africa.

He fought for human _____.

But the _____ sent him to prison.

Mandela spent twenty-seven years in prison.

He finally became _____ in 1990.

Four years later, he became the _____ of South Africa!

Unit 11. The Amazing Pumpkin

Pumpkins are one of the _____ foods eaten all over the world.

They are also one of the _____ farmed plants.

Researchers have _____ seeds and pumpkin parts in _____ homes.

These _____ show that people farmed pumpkins a long time ago!

_____ pumpkins were quite small.

But today we can grow them very _____.

In 2013, a man grew a _____ that was over 900 kg!

This world-record pumpkin was both _____ and big!

Two or three people could _____ inside of it!

Unit 12. What Is It?

I have a _____ thing in mind.

If you feed it, it lives, but if you give it _____, it dies.

Do you need more _____?

Don't _____ it, because this thing is very hot!

It is yellow, _____, and orange.

Is it _____ yet, or do you need some more tips?

Don't think about _____, people, or places.

Think about _____ that you put out with water.

It consumes _____.

It starts with _____ and then has flames.

That's right—it's fire!

Unit 13. An Eight-Legged Wonder

An _____ has eight legs.

Most people _____ that.

Did you know if an octopus _____ a leg, it will grow another?

Or did you know that an octopus has three _____?

It even has blue blood!

Octopuses are _____ in many ways.

They can swim _____ and change color.

They are also very _____.

According to some scientists, octopuses are smart enough to solve _____!

Octopuses are _____ animals.

Just be careful not to _____ one.

You might find yourself in a cloud of black ink!

Unit 14. A Talent for Many Things

Raphael was a _____ painter in Italy.

He lived a long _____ ago, from 1483 to 1520.

The people in his _____ paintings look alive.

Raphael painted _____ on walls.

He even painted _____!

You can still see some of his great _____ today.

And Raphael didn't _____ paint.

He was an _____, too.

He designed many things, including homes for _____ and queens!

Raphael was good at many things.

No _____ people call him one of the greatest artists ever!

Unit 15. Better Together

Three men went _____, but their boat went down in a storm.

They swam to a small _____ and found a _____ bottle.

When they opened the _____, a genie came out!

The genie gave each man a _____.

"I wish I were _____!" said the first man.

The genie used _____ to send him home.

"I wish I were home, too!" _____ the second man.

The genie _____ him home.

"I miss my _____," said the last man. "I wish they were here with me."

Unit 16. Becoming Different

When he _____ home from school, Oscar the Caterpillar was _____.

"What's the matter?" asked his mother.

"Everyone _____ me," said Oscar.

"They say I run slowly. I don't _____ to go to school."

"Don't be _____, Oscar," said his mother.

"_____ me. Soon you'll become someone special."

One day, Oscar _____ up and went to school as usual.

He wondered why his friends were looking at him, so he looked in the _____.

He saw a _____ moth!

And he was _____ to fly!