Reading 1 Title: Decorating with Paper snowflakes

After learning how to make paper snowflakes, I decided to decorate my sister Angela's room with paper snowflakes for her birthday. Her favorite season is winter, so I thought she would love paper snowflakes. First, I cut the large papers into smaller squares. Then, I folded the paper a couple of times until I got an isosceles triangle. Folding the triangle into thirds was easier than before. My brother helped me to cut off the corners and make patterns of the snowflakes. My brother and I made not only regular-colored paper snowflakes, but also pink, green, and even blue ones. We put the snowflakes on the wall of my sister's room. When Angela came back from her violin class, she was surprised to see her room full of beautiful paper snowflakes!
