Reading 1 Title: Augustus Caesar, the First Roman Emperor

Augustus Caesar was the first emperor of the Roman Empire. He was born in 63 B.C. in a town 20 miles away from Rome. After he started to rule the Roman Empire from 31 B.C., he passed laws that maintained the traditions of the Roman Republic. Also, to appeal to the Roman people, Augustus tried hard to improve the city of Rome. During his rule, the Roman Empire expanded almost two times in size. He married three times and left two sons. He died in A.D. 14 after keeping his empire in peace. His rule transformed not only the Roman government, but also its architecture and art.
