※ (24-27) Read readings 1 and 2, then answer the questions.

Reading 1 Title: Socratic Method in Law School

The Socratic method is often used in law education. In classes that use the Socratic method, a professor will ask questions that would make students think critically. There is usually no clear answer or conclusion in these classes. Sometimes, lawyers may not be able to fully prepare for a trial but still need to provide answers to some questions as they come up. Through the Socratic method, students learn how to think quickly. They can also develop critical thinking by using the Socratic method. As a law student, you do not need to be scared of the Socratic method. It will get you ready to be a good lawyer.

24. Read and choose.

In classes that use the Socratic method, a professor asks questions that have 'black-or-white' answers.

- ① True    ② False

25. Read and choose the sentence that is NOT true.

- ① You can see law classes using the Socratic method.
- ② The Socratic method is helpful for law school students.
- ③ The Socratic method teaches students how to think under pressure.
- ④ Lawyers are always perfectly ready before a trial.
- ⑤ The Socratic method is useful to improve critical thinking.

Reading 2 Title: The Reality of Electric Cars

There are a number of things you need to know before buying an electric car. To charge an electric car, you need to have a house where it is easy to plug the car in. If you live in an apartment, it may be hard to charge an electric car in a parking lot. Secondly, you need to think about the cost for an electric car. Even though many governments provide some financial support when you buy an electric car, buying electric cars or even extra batteries still costs a lot of money. Until electric cars are commonly used, it may not be easy or affordable to have an electric car.

26. Read and choose the correct answer for the blank.

The attitude of the narrator towards electric cars is _____.

- ① positive    ② negative

27. Read and choose the correct sentence according to the passage above.

- ① Electric cars are used by a lot of people now.
- ② You can easily find an outlet to charge an electric car in a parking lot.
- ③ You need to consider a number of things when you purchase an electric car.
- ④ There is no financial support available when you buy an electric car.
- ⑤ You don't need to buy any battery for an electric car.
