

READING FUTUREWarm up answers for Change 2 Student Book*Unit 1. Artificial Limbs

- How would your life be different if you only had one arm or leg?

My life would be sad and uncomfortable.

- Which would be more difficult: having only one real leg or one real arm? Why?

One real arm would be more difficult because I could get a motorized wheel chair to go everywhere I want with my one real leg.

- What do you think would be the most difficult thing to do with an arm or leg that isn't real?

I think balancing the body would be the most difficult thing to do.

Unit 2. Seeing Red

- What color uniforms have you seen?

I have seen many different color uniforms: blue, green, white, and red.

- Do you think the color of the uniforms can influence a match?

Yes, I think colors matters. / No, I don't think so.

Unit 3. What's That Noise?

- What types of pollution do you know of?

I know water pollution, noise pollution, and air pollution.

- Why do we need to make less pollution?

Because we must save this planet for our future generations.

- How can we make less pollution?

We can use public transportation, plant a garden, and reuse paper bags.

Unit 4. Understanding the Heart

- Where is your heart in your body?

My heart is located on the left side of my chest.

- How does the heart help other organs?

The heart is a specialized muscle that pumps blood around your body.

- What are some ways to keep your heart healthy?

Eat healthy, get enough sleep, and exercise regularly.

Unit 5. Hypertext Literature

- What does it mean to escape into a story?

It means that you are totally into a story.

- What story do you wish ended in a different way?

I wish the story of Harry Potter ended in a different way.

- Do you think it would be fun to read a book that you could start in the middle? Why or why not?

Yes, I do. Some stories begin with long explanations, so it would be fun to skip all the boring parts! / No, I don't think so. It would be hard to understand the whole story without reading the beginning.

Unit 6. Types of Literature

- What are some things words can do?

Words can be used in different kinds of literature.

- Do you think literature is interesting?

Yes, I do think so. / No, I don't think so.

- What kind of stories do you like to read?

I like to read fantasy novels.

Unit 7. Poems We Love

- What do poets want readers to do?

Poets want readers to think about a poem.

- Why do poets choose their words carefully?

Because words could deliver many different meanings to the poem.

- Did you like the poem, "Early Bird"? Why or why not?

Yes, I did. The poet suggested the different point of view of being a worm. / No, I didn't. It wasn't interesting enough.

Unit 8. Anne of Green Gables

- What is your favorite book? Why?

My favorite book is Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. The idea was creative.

- How would you feel if you were adopted by two old people? Why?

I would feel sad because I would miss my biological parents.

- How can remembering the good in life help you?

The good memories will bring back the happiness.

Unit 9. Digital Money

- Why do people carry around money?

To pay for what we buy.

- How do you think this new kind of money would work?

People don't need to bring their cash or card in their purses.

- Do you think the computer money will be easier than carrying paper and coins? Why or why not?

It would be easier because one electronic device can track all your money. / It won't be easier because you will have a higher risk of being hacked.

Unit 10. The History of Money

- How could you buy something if you didn't have money to pay for it?

I could exchange something valuable.

- What forms of money do you use to pay for things?

I use cash or credit cards to pay for things.

- What images are on your country's money?

They are the famous person in Korean money. For example, King Sejong, Shin Saimdang, and Toegye Yi Whang

Unit 11. Shopping at the Stock Market

- What kind of market do you usually go to?

I go to the market for food or clothes.

- How do you choose the things to buy?

I make a list before buying things.

- Do you think you can help businesses? How?

Yes, I do. I can buy a stock of a business.

Unit 12. What are Credit Cards?

- What are some things people carry in their wallets or purses?

People carry cash, cards, or ID cards.

- Have you seen a credit card? What does it look like?

Yes, I have. It looks like a small and thin plastic card.

- Do you know how a credit card works?

Yes, I do. When the card is used, the company pays for the goods. The money it paid is due at the certain day of the month.

Unit 13. A Face Like No Other

- How do you know if someone is friendly?

Someone who smiles a lot seems friendly.

- What makes your best friend's face special?

My best friend has chick bones which make her cute.

- What is interesting about your own face?

The color of my eyes is blue comparing to others.

Unit 14. Frank's Lunch

- How do you choose the things you want to buy?

I choose the cheapest ones.

- How do you know how much money you need in order to buy something?

I check the price tags and calculate them in my brain.

- How often do you buy your lunch at school? How much do you usually spend?

I buy my lunch every day. I usually spend 5,000 won per meal.

Unit 15. The Mistake on Mars

- What are different ways to show how tall something is?

I would stand up straight and compare it with my height.

- What would you use to see how tall you are? Why?

I would use the door in the house to show how tall I am. It is easy way to do.

- What could happen if your numbers about how tall you are were wrong?

I would go to the hospital to check.

Unit 16. Measuring Animals in the Wild

- What is the biggest animal you've ever seen? How big was it?

I have seen a blue whale in aquarium. It is huge.

- How do you measure things? What can you use to measure things?

I use the measuring tape to do.

- Do you think it is easy to measure large animals? Why or why not?

No, I don't think so. There won't be a large measuring tape.