READING FUTURE
Warm-up answers Connect 3 Student Book

Unit 1. Technology Can Help

• Where would you like to help?

I'd like to go to orphanage to help them.

• How would you help?

I would talk and play with them.

Unit 2. Junior Red Cross

• What is the man doing in the picture?

He is giving food to an old woman.

• When do people need help?

They need help when they get injured or sick.

Unit 3. Earth Day

• What are the children doing?

They are planting trees.

• What do you do to make the Earth healthier?

I try not to use the plastic to make the Earth healthier.

Unit 4. Two Boys and a Volunteer Worker

• How can you make money on your own?

I can make money by selling baked goods or lemonade.

• What other ways do volunteer workers help people?

Volunteer workers help people find food, shelter and other resources.

Unit 5. Doctors and Technology

• In what ways can computers help doctors?

Doctors do not always know what is wrong. So computers can help doctors sometimes.

• Do you think computers can replace doctors? Why or why not?

Yes, they can because computers are better and faster than doctors. / No, they can't because the computer cannot work alone.

Unit 6. Laser Eye Surgery

• Do you wear glasses or contact lenses?

Yes, I do. / No, I don't.

• Do you know anyone who got laser eye surgery.

Yes, my mother/father/sister/uncle got the surgery. / No, I don't

Unit 7. Healthy Astronauts

• How do you think astronauts stay healthy while they work?

They exercise and follow a healthy diet.

• Do you want to become an astronaut? Why or why not?

Yes, I do. Going into space sounds exciting! / No, I don't. Space seems scary and being an astronaut is difficult.

Unit 8. Fitness Tracker

• What do you think a fitness tracker does?

It keeps track of your activities and helps monitor your health.

• Would you like to wear a fitness tracker? Why or why not?

Yes, I would. I would like to track my health. / No, I wouldn't. I do not pay attention to my fitness.

Unit 9. A Fictional Language

• Do you know any fictional languages?

Yes, I do. / No, I don't.

• If you created a new language, what would you call it?

I would call it Devspeak.

Unit 10. The Brontë Sisters

• Can you name any other famous English writers?

There is William Shakespeare, Jane Austen, George Orwell, J.K. Rowling, Ursula Pflug, etc.

• Have you read any stories by the Brontë sisters?

Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.

Unit 11. A Young Writer

• What kind of books do you like to read?

I like to read fantasy novels.

• Have you written any stories? If yes, what were they about?

Yes, I have. It was about my family. / No, I haven't.

Unit 12. Jules Verne: The Father of the Future

• Do you know any science fiction stories?

Yes, I do. I know stories with robots and aliens, such as War of the Worlds. / No, I don't.

• Do you like science fiction? Why or why not?

Yes, I do. I like how it makes me think of future possibilities. / No, I don't. It can be frightening!

Unit 13. Lotte World Tower

• Why do you think people like to build tall buildings?

People build tall buildings for decorative and practical purposes in big cities and to show feats of engineering.

• What is the tallest building you have ever seen?

The tallest building I have ever seen is the Lotte World Tower in Seoul.

Unit 14. The Meaning of Zero

• What symbols do you see every day?

I see the symbol 0 every day.

• How do you use the number zero?

I use zero for numbers.

Unit 15. Graphs

• Where have you seen graphs used?

I have seen graphs in classrooms.

• Have you ever used a graph? What for?

No, I haven't. / Yes, I have. I used a graph to show my work.

Unit 16. Pyramids and Angles

• What does a pyramid look like?

Pyramids have three triangular sides with a square bottom, a broad base and a pointed top.

• What do you know about how pyramids were built?

The Ancient Egyptians built the pyramids with their hands.