

READING FUTUREWarm-up answers for Create 3 Student Book*Unit 1. The Diary of a Young Girl

- Why is it important to learn about history?

History teaches us our mistakes and successes so we can learn from them.

- Why do people write down their personal experiences?

To remember their lives and to share them with others.

- Do you write down your thoughts and feelings?

Yes, I do. / No, I don't.

Unit 2. Leonardo da Vinci

- Do you like to look at art in museums?

Yes, I do. I like to see an art such as paintings or photographs. / No, I don't. I think it is boring.

- Describe this painting. What do you like about it?

There is a half a drawing of a horse and a portrait of Leonardo da Vinci. I like that it is in pencil.

- What do you know about Leonardo da Vinci?

He painted the Mona Lisa.

Unit 3. Pocahontas

- What do you know about Native Americans?

Native Americans were greatly affected by the European colonization of the Americas

- Have you seen the movie or heard the story of Pocahontas?

Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.

- Who is your favorite female character in movies or books?

I like Katniss from The Hunger Games.

Unit 4. Walt Disney

- How are cartoons and animated films created?

They are a series of illustrations put together.

- What is your favorite Disney film?

I like Aladdin.

- Would you like to go to Disneyland?

Yes, I would. / No, I wouldn't.

Unit 5. Foreign Exchange Rates

- Do you know the names of some countries' money?

Yes, I know the Russian ruble, the Japanese yen, and the Indian rupee.

- What do you think the numbers in the picture mean?

I think they are the value of the different currencies.

- Have you ever changed your country's money to another country's money?

Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.

Unit 6. What Are Banks For?

- What other services do banks have?

Banks offer loans and currency exchange services.

- Do you keep your money in a bank? Why?

Yes, because it is safe there.

- What do people borrow money from the bank for?

For a place to live or to start a business.

Unit 7. How to Set Prices

- Do you think about the price before you buy something?

Yes, I do. / No, I don't.

- If a product costs less at a different store, would you go and buy it there?

Yes, I would. / No, I wouldn't.

- How do people today find the best price for something they want to buy?

They check the internet to find the best price.

Unit 8. Hyperinflation

- Why do you think prices go up slowly over time?

Prices go up as the government prints more money.

- Why might it be a problem if prices rise too quickly?

People won't have the money to pay for things they need.

- What is something you sometimes buy? How much do you think it cost fifty years ago?

I sometimes buy toys. I think toys cost half as much fifty years ago.

Unit 9. Virtual Reality and Art

- What do you think is another way you can see famous art?

I can see the famous art on the internet.

- Who is your favorite artist?

My favorite artist is Leonardo da Vinci.

- What is your favorite kind of art?

I like painting the most.

Unit 10. Banksy's Graffiti Art

- What do you think about the art in the picture?

I think it is colorful graffiti.

- Where do you see art?

I can see it on the streets.

- How do you know if something is art?

Some people believe art must be practiced and perfected. Other people like art with strange shapes, forms, and colors.

Unit 11. The Art of LEGO

- Have you ever played with LEGO?

Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.

- If you have thousands of LEGO bricks, what would you want to make?

I would make a big house.

- Do you think LEGO is art? Why or why not?

Yes, I do. They make amazing sculptures. / No, I don't. People don't need special training.

Unit 12. Nail Art

- What are these people doing in the picture?

They are doing nail art.

- How long do you think this usually takes?

It usually takes 15 minutes.

- Why do you think people get their nails painted?

They do it to express themselves.

Unit 13. New Homes for Animals

- Describe the environment the animals in the picture live in.

The animals live in the rainforests and grasslands of Africa.

- What are some possible reasons the animals could lose their home?

A lot of animals' homes are being ruined by people or natural disasters.

- Why do you think it is important to protect animals and their environments?

To protect the future health of the Earth.

Unit 14. Doctor Fish

- What do you see in these pictures?

I can see men's feet and fish.

- How do you think these things are related?

The fish eat bad skin from his feet.

- How can fish help our health?

The fish eat the bad parts of the skin.

Unit 15. DNA Bank

- What is the person holding in the picture?

They are holding a vial of DNA.

- What do you think it is for?

I think it is to study the DNA inside.

- Why do scientists study DNA?

They study DNA to learn more about the animals.

Unit 16. Domestication

- What do you see in the picture?

I see three cows standing in a field.

- What do people use these animals for?

They use them for food or milk.

- What are the other reasons people grow plants and raise animals?

People grow plants because they are beautiful. People raise animals as companions.