

The Wii is a very fun machine. You play video games on it. There are many kinds to choose from. For example, sports and action games are popular.

Some people hold Wii parties at their homes. Friends try to be the best race car driver or baseball player.

To play the Wii, you use a control stick. For some games (like sports games), you need to move around a lot. That can be tiring. In fact, some people use the Wii to exercise!

Vocabulary Practice

Write the correct word in each blank.

party

tiring

game

home

use

1. It's late. We should go _____.
2. How do you _____ this coffee maker?
3. Walking up all these stairs is _____.
4. Do you want to come to my birthday _____?

Reading Practice

Choose the best answer.

- () What is the Wii?
A: An action game.
B: A video game machine.
C: A kind of party.
D: A TV sports show.
- () Why is the Wii a good way to exercise?
A: For some games, you move around a lot.
B: The control stick is heavy.
C: Players join teams to play games.
D: You play it outside.
- () What does “in fact” mean?
A: maybe
B: sometimes
C: actually
D: soon
- () Which of the following is true?
A: There are very few Wii games.
B: To play the Wii, you always stand still.
C: A control stick is used to play the Wii.
D: Most people play the Wii alone.

Language Practice

Write the correct word in each blank.

- The story was so _____!
(interested/interesting)
- I don't want to go out. I'm _____.
(tired/tiring)
- It's an _____ movie. You should watch it.
(excited/exciting)
- We're so busy. We're never _____.
(bored/boring)