African Music

African music uses many drums. Drums sound the best with African songs! African music also uses the "thumb piano." Many Africans like the thumb piano very much.

A thumb piano is very small, so you have to be gentle with it. You can see a hole in it. There are many keys on the thumb piano. You can make music when you tap the keys. Some of its keys are long, and some are short. All thumb pianos sound like little bells. African music is very special! It sounds great!
