

Class: _____ Name: _____

Score: ____ /15

[1-6] Read the passage again. Choose the correct words.

1 Sharks can (fit / smell) one drop of blood in a swimming pool.

2 Sharks do not have (bones / cartilage).

3 Cartilage is like bone, but it can (eat / bend).

4 The goby cannot (swim / dig) burrows.

5 The goby and the shrimp (share / make) food.

6 When the shrimp digs, the goby (eats / guards) the burrow.

[7-8] Go back to the passages. Complete the sentences.

7 You can put a dwarf lantern shark in your hand.

→ The dwarf lantern shark can _____ in your hand.

8 Goby fish and pistol shrimp are not alike.

→ Goby fish and pistol shrimp are _____.

[9-12] Read and choose True or False.

Sharks are very old animals. Sharks are older than the dinosaurs.

Sharks are all different sizes. The whale shark is the biggest. It is 15 meters long. The dwarf lantern shark is the smallest. It can fit in your hand.

- | | | |
|-----------|---------------------------------------|--------------|
| 9 | Dinosaurs are older than sharks. | True / False |
| 10 | Sharks are all different sizes. | True / False |
| 11 | The lantern shark is the biggest. | True / False |
| 12 | The whale shark can fit in your hand. | True / False |

[13-15] Read and choose the correct answers.

The shrimp cannot see. But the goby can. The goby watches the shrimp and keeps it safe from other animals. When the shrimp digs, the goby guards the burrow.

These friends share food too. The goby eats first. Then the shrimp eats the leftovers.

- 13 The goby watches the shrimp and keeps it _____ from other animals.
- Ⓐ safe
 - Ⓑ cold
- 14 Who eats the leftovers?
- Ⓐ the goby
 - Ⓑ the shrimp
- 15 What is true about the goby and the shrimp?
- Ⓐ They are friends.
 - Ⓑ They are a family.