

[1-7] Read the passages again. Choose the correct answers.

1. One national park protects active (volcanoes / islands).
2. Visitors want to hike through the park's (rainforests / tubes).
3. Kilauea is smaller but much more (up close / active).
4. It (makes up / erupts) more than half of the Big Island.
5. Some parks were once old, (unused / narrow) empty spaces.
6. (Above / Along) the park, people can enjoy interesting art.
7. In winter, The Bentway becomes a long ice-skating (sculpture / trail).

[8-9] Go back to the passages. Complete the sentences.

8. Active volcanoes are likely to erupt one day.
→ Active volcanoes can erupt _____.
9. New York City changed an old train track to the High Line.
→ New York City _____ an old railway _____ the High Line.

[10-12] Read and choose the correct answers.

Hawaii has many national parks. They protect Hawaii's beautiful, wild nature. One national park protects something very amazing. It protects active volcanoes. Active volcanoes can erupt anytime.

10. There are many national parks in Hawaii. True / False
11. Active volcanoes erupt once a year. True / False
12. What is true about Hawaii's national parks?
 - a) They protect its beautiful, wild nature.
 - b) They can erupt anytime.
 - c) They only protect active volcanoes.

[13-15] Read and choose the correct answers.

Toronto has The Bentway. It used to be an unused space under a highway. But the city turned it into a lively park. In winter, the park becomes a long ice-skating trail.

13. What is the paragraph mainly about?

- a) highways under parks
- b) ice-skating trails
- c) The Bentway in Toronto

14. What does The Bentway become in winter?

- a) a long ice-skating trail
- b) a highway for cars
- c) an unused space

15. What is NOT true about The Bentway?

- a) It is in Toronto.
- b) It is a lively park.
- c) It used to be a highway.