

[1-7] Read the passages again. Choose the correct answers.

1. You ( pick up / care about ) trash as you jog.
2. You can do it at a park or around your ( workout / neighborhood ).
3. You will feel proud of your good ( work / word ).
4. Americans ( throw away / decide ) about 320 million books every year.
5. The book ( language / collection ) was big enough to open a library.
6. They started ( donating / sharing ) them with each other.
7. One man's trash is another man's ( treasure / worker ).

[8-9] Go back to the passages. Complete the sentences.

8. Plogging is a kind of exercise that helps the environment.
→ Plogging is a type of _____ exercise.
9. Some garbage collectors decided to solve this problem.
→ Some garbage collectors decided to _____ about this.

[10-12] Read and choose the correct answers.

Plogging is a type of eco-friendly exercise. You pick up trash as you jog. It started in Sweden in 2016. Plogging is a new word. It comes from the words "plocka upp" and "jogging." "Plocka upp" means "pick up" in Swedish.

10. Plogging started in Switzerland. True / False
11. In Swedish, "plocka upp" means "pick up." True / False
12. What is NOT true about plogging?
  - a) It is bad for the environment.
  - b) It started in 2016.
  - c) It started in Sweden.

[13-15] Read and choose the correct answers.

The book collection got bigger and bigger. Soon, it was big enough to open a library. At first, the library was just for workers. Later, it opened for everyone to use. Some people even donated their own books to the library.

13. What is the paragraph mainly about?

- a) what books people donated
- b) how the library opened
- c) who works at the library

14. At first, who was the library for?

- a) workers
- b) everyone
- c) Americans

15. What is true about the library?

- a) Some people donated their books to it.
- b) At first, it was for everyone to use.
- c) Now, it is just for workers.