

[1-7] Read the passages again. Choose the correct answers.

1. Porcupine caribou migrate ( season / north ) to find food.
2. Arctic terns ( spend / migrate ) the furthest.
3. That is like flying around Earth ( twice / back ) every year.
4. Every year, its roads become ( bright / special ) red.
5. In October and November, the crabs mate and ( travel / lay ) eggs.
6. It is a long and dangerous ( forest / journey ).
7. People built many ( tunnels / islands ) for the crabs.

[8-9] Go back to the passages. Complete the sentences.

8. Porcupine caribou stay there during summer.
→ Porcupine caribou _____ summer there.
9. Lots of red crabs migrate across the island.
→ _____ of red crabs travel across the island.

[10-12] Read and choose the correct answers.

Monarch butterflies migrate farther. They live in eastern and western North America. Every fall, they travel south to Mexico or southern California. They return home in spring. They travel around 4,800 kilometers.

10. Monarch butterflies live in South America. True / False
11. Monarch butterflies migrate every fall. True / False
12. What is NOT true about monarch butterflies?
  - a) They live in eastern and western North America.
  - b) They travel to Mexico or southern California every fall.
  - c) They return home in winter.

[13-15] Read and choose the correct answers.

The Christmas Island red crab migration happens during the wet season. It usually starts in October or November. In these months, the crabs mate and lay eggs. However, they must travel from the forest to the ocean. Then they must travel back to the forest. It is a long and dangerous journey.

13. What is the paragraph mainly about?

- a) how the crabs lay their eggs
- b) where the forest and ocean are
- c) when and how the crab migration happens

14. Where must the crabs travel first?

- a) from the forest to the ocean
- b) from the tunnel to the bridge
- c) from the island to the forest

15. What is NOT true about the red crab migration?

- a) It usually starts in October or November.
- b) It is a short and safe journey.
- c) It happens during the wet season.