

[1-7] Read the passages again. Choose the correct answers.

1. Water (trunks / festivals) help wash away bad things from the past.
2. People playfully (splash / celebrate) each other with water.
3. Elephants spray water on people with their (buckets / trunks).
4. People come from all over the world to (gather / attend) La Tomatina.
5. How did this (unique / nearby) festival start?
6. There was a vegetable (stall / parade) with tomatoes nearby.
7. The food fight (throws / lasts) for about an hour.

[8-9] Go back to the passages. Complete the sentences.

8. There are very big water fights on the roads.
→ There are _____ water fights in the streets.
9. Since then, the town has kept having the event every year.
→ Since then, the town has _____ the tradition each year.

[10-12] Read and choose the correct answers.

Songkran is the biggest water festival. It happens every year in Thailand from April 13th to 16th. There are huge water fights in the streets. People use water guns and buckets to playfully splash each other. Even elephants join in on the festival too! They use their trunks to spray water on people.

10. Songkran's water fights happen in the streets. True / False
11. Elephants join in on Songkran. True / False
12. What is true about Songkran?
 - a) It happens in August.
 - b) It is the world's smallest water festival.
 - c) It happens every year in Thailand.

[13-15] Read and choose the correct answers.

But how did this unique festival start? In 1945, a fight broke out during a parade. There was a vegetable stall with tomatoes nearby. People picked up the tomatoes and began throwing them at each other. It was a giant food fight. Since then, the town has continued the tradition each year.

13. What is the paragraph mainly about?

- a) how the parade started
- b) how people throw tomatoes
- c) how La Tomatina started

14. In 1945, what broke out during a parade?

- a) a fight
- b) a stall
- c) a festival

15. What is NOT true about the fight in 1945?

- a) It became a small food fight.
- b) People picked up tomatoes from a vegetable stall.
- c) It broke out during a parade.