

[1-7] Read the passages again. Choose the correct answers.

1. The first bicycle had a wooden ( fact / frame ) and two wheels.
2. ( Riders / Seats ) had to use their feet to move the bike forward.
3. The penny-farthing had rubber tires and a ( century / brake ).
4. Its high ( foot / seat ) made it dangerous to ride.
5. Tour guides and ( tourists / cities ) ride bicycles to look around the city.
6. It is easier for bicycles to ( pass / deliver ) through crowded areas.
7. The guides take tourists to popular ( messengers / attractions ).

[8-9] Go back to the passages. Complete the sentences.

8. The pedals were connected to the wheel in the front.
→ The pedals were _____ to the front wheel.
9. There are many bike messengers in large cities.
→ Bike messengers are very _____ in big cities.

[10-12] Read and choose the correct answers.

In the 1870s, the "penny-farthing" was invented. It was a steel bicycle with rubber tires and a brake. It looked strange because of its large front wheel and much smaller rear wheel. It could go faster, but its high seat made it dangerous to ride.

10. The penny-farthing was made of wood. True / False
11. The penny-farthing had a smaller rear wheel. True / False
12. What is NOT true about the penny-farthing?
  - a) It had a large front wheel.
  - b) It had a low seat.
  - c) It had rubber tires.

[13-15] Read and choose the correct answers.

Bike messengers are very common in big cities. They use their bicycles to deliver documents, small packages, and even food. Bicycles are smaller and lighter than cars. So bike messengers can move in and out of traffic more easily.

13. What is the paragraph mainly about?

- a) what bike messengers do
- b) what food bike messengers deliver
- c) what bikes bike messengers use

14. How are bicycles different than cars?

- a) They are bigger and heavier.
- b) They are bigger and lighter.
- c) They are smaller and lighter.

15. What is true about bike messengers?

- a) They are very common in small towns.
- b) They deliver documents.
- c) They deliver large packages.