

[1-7] Read the passages again. Choose the correct answers.

1. Most people ( view / bring ) yellow as a happy color.
2. Many traffic ( warning / luck ) signs are in red.
3. Colors can bring out different ( arches / emotions ) in people.
4. He used colored ( yarn / terrace ) to try different color combinations.
5. Everyone recognizes his paintings by their ( café / bright ) colors.
6. Van Gogh kept on trying different color ( times / combinations ).
7. When they are next to each other, they become more ( vivid / effect ).

[8-9] Go back to the passages. Complete the sentences.

8. In China, people believe red makes good things happen.
→ In China, red represents good _____.
9. In Café Terrace at Night, yellow shines brighter against dark blue.
→ In Café Terrace at Night, yellow _____ brighter against dark blue.

[10-12] Read and choose the correct answers.

Yellow is a powerful color. Most people view it as a happy color. McDonald's uses bright yellow for their famous arches. They show people that happiness is nearby. However, a dull yellow color is different. It can represent sickness or a warning.

10. Most people think yellow is a sad color. True / False
11. Dull yellow can represent sickness or a warning. True / False
12. What is NOT true about McDonald's arches?
  - a) They represent sickness.
  - b) They show that happiness is nearby.
  - c) They are bright yellow.

[13-15] Read and choose the correct answers.

Van Gogh did not always use colors this way. At first, he used dark colors. There was lots of brown, dark blue, and gray in his paintings. At that time, he focused more on shapes and lines than colors.

13. What is the paragraph mainly about?

- a) what Van Gogh used to draw his paintings
- b) how Van Gogh used bright colors in his paintings
- c) when Van Gogh used dark colors in his paintings

14. What did Van Gogh focus more on at first?

- a) colors and shapes
- b) lines and colors
- c) shapes and lines

15. What is NOT true about Van Gogh's paintings at first?

- a) They had lots of dark colors like brown and gray.
- b) They had lots of bright colors like pink and yellow.
- c) They were more focused on shapes and lines.