

Class: _____

Name: _____

Score: ____ /15

[1-4] Complete the sentences.

deliver remote access simply

1. Bookmobiles _____ books and library services to people in remote areas.
2. Others ask basic questions about English grammar. And some _____ call to find out what Twitter or Instagram is.
3. Bookmobiles give some people _____ to books.
4. People that live in the _____ islands of Sweden need books too.

[5-8] Choose the correct words.

5. How tall is the ( average / public ) giraffe?
6. Although we can ( look up / provide ) things on the internet, sometimes it is still nicer to ask a human.
7. Books ( deliver / represent ) knowledge, wisdom, and imagination.
8. When people need books, they often go to their ( remote / local ) library.

[9-11] Read and answer the questions.

In 1968, the New York Public Library created a public telephone service called Ask NYPL. The service allowed New Yorkers to call into the library and ask questions. A team of librarians were waiting to answer the questions. People called and asked all sorts of questions to the NYPL's librarians. For example, "Why do 18th century English paintings have so many squirrels in them?" The knowledgeable librarians, with the help of the library's archives, did their best to provide a quick and factual answer.

9. What is the public telephone service from the New York Public Library called?
Ⓐ New Yorkers                      Ⓑ Ask NYPL                      Ⓒ NYPL

10. Who called and used the telephone service?

- Ⓐ librarians                      Ⓑ painters                      Ⓒ people with questions

11. What is true about Ask NYPL?

- Ⓐ It allowed New Yorkers to call the library and ask questions.
Ⓑ It was created in the 18th century.
Ⓒ It had one librarian to answer all of the questions.

[12-15] Read and answer the questions.

Bookmobiles, or mobile libraries, deliver books and library services to people in remote areas. These remote areas usually do not have their own library. So a library must come to them. Almost any vehicle can be used as a bookmobile. From the 19th to early 20th century, horse-drawn vans and wagons were commonly used. Later on, cars and trucks became a more popular form.

12. What is the paragraph mainly about?

- Ⓐ what bookmobiles are
Ⓑ what vehicles people use today
Ⓒ where remote areas are

13. What does their refer to?

- Ⓐ bookmobiles                      Ⓑ library services                      Ⓒ remote areas

14. What can be used as a bookmobile?

- Ⓐ motorcycles                      Ⓑ almost any vehicle                      Ⓒ dogs

15. What is NOT true about bookmobiles?

- Ⓐ They are for people in remote areas.
Ⓑ They deliver books and library services to people.
Ⓒ They can only be cars or trucks.