

Unit 1 Omelets

Mike likes omelets! They're easy and fun to prepare. He heats butter in a pan on the stove. He mixes milk, three eggs, salt, and pepper in a bowl. He cooks the mix in the pan for two minutes. Then he adds cheese. He turns off the stove. He folds the omelet in half. Enjoy—yum!

Unit 2 Lines Everywhere

Reza was doing his math homework about lines. "I don't need to study lines because I want to be an artist," Reza told Grandma. "Then you do need to study lines," Grandma said.

"Why?"

"Everything you draw has lines. Buildings have straight lines. Faces have round lines. Clouds have wavy lines."

"Hmm," said Reza. "Maybe lines are important."

Unit 3 Living on the Moon

Josie and her dad look at the moon. "The moon isn't very far. Why can't people live there?" Josie asks.

"It's hard for people to live on the moon."

"Why?"

"It has no air or water. Some scientists plan to make special buildings there. Then people can live on the moon."

"Cool!" Josie says. "I want to live there someday!"

Unit 4 Mila's Mask

In art class, Mila took black paper and scissors. She cut out a circle and cut it in half. She glued the pieces to a paper plate. Next, Mila cut two circles in the plate. She drew a nose and mouth. She put the paper plate over her face. What is Mila? A panda!

Unit 5 The Farmer's Market

Joy's parents decided to try the farmer's market. Joy went with them. Mom gave Joy money. "Buy vegetables for salad," she said. Joy looked around. Such bright colors! She enjoyed choosing the best vegetables. Later, at home, Joy made the salad. It was fresh and tasty. "I love the farmer's market!" Joy said. "Let's go again!"

Unit 6 Lucky Me!

My dad is a baseball fan. I thought baseball was boring, but then I went to a game with my dad. We had a good view of the field. Dad's favorite player swung at the ball—crack! The ball flew high and fast. It came right to me, and I caught it! Dad's right. Baseball is exciting.

Unit 7 Interesting Animals

People are animals. We're like other animals in several ways. Both people and other animals need air. We both get hungry and thirsty, so we both need food and water. There are differences, too. Many animals can live all alone. But people need friends and family. Without them, we're unhappy. We're interesting animals!

Unit 8 Groundhog Day

February 2nd is Groundhog Day in the US. On this day, an animal tells the future! Groundhogs live below ground in winter. There's a famous one named Phil. On Groundhog Day, people watch Phil. He comes out of the ground. Sometimes he goes back down. That means spring is far away. Sometimes he stays outside. That means spring is coming soon!

Unit 9 Leo's Pet

Leo's pet came from a lake. Leo put him in a nice bowl. He named him "Tad" because he was a tadpole. But Tad didn't stay a tadpole. Slowly, Tad grew legs. Then his tail became shorter. His legs became stronger. One day, he jumped out of his bowl. Leo was excited. Tad was a frog!

Unit 10 Rex the Dinosaur

Sandy traveled in time and went back 70 million years. Sandy felt afraid. Then someone said, "Hi, I'm Rex." It was a friendly dinosaur!

"Hi, I'm Sandy."

"Would you like a ride?"

"Sure!" Sandy climbed onto Rex's back, and they ran and jumped. It was fun.

Suddenly, Sandy woke up. She remembered the dinosaur and laughed. What a wonderful dream!

Unit 11 I Forgot!

My family is going to the beach this weekend. We're staying at a beach hotel, and I can't wait to go swimming. I bring my suitcase to the door. "I'm ready to go!" I say.

"Do you have enough clothes?" Mom asks.

"Of course."

"Do you have your toothbrush?"

“Yes!”

“How about your swimsuit?”

“Oops—I forgot!”

Unit 12 Clothes Drive

Some families don't have warm clothes. So my class had a “clothes drive.” That is when you collect clothes. Then you give them to people who need them. My class collected lots of clothes! I gave two sweaters, a coat, and some mittens. Yesterday we brought the clothes to the community center. It felt good to help people.

Unit 13 Peter Pan

There was a special boy named Peter Pan. He lived in Neverland, a magic place. Peter could fly! One night, he visited Wendy. “I never want to grow up,” Peter explained. They flew to Neverland together, met his friends, and had adventures. The two stayed friends forever. And Peter got his wish. He never grew up!

Unit 14 An Inca Boy

Kon was an Inca boy. His name means “god of rain.” He lived in Peru in the 1400s. Most Incas were farmers. Kon's parents were, too. The Incas didn't have books. They learned by listening to older people speak. They studied music, science, and history. Kon's father taught him all these things. Years later, Kon taught his children, too.

Unit 15 Hic!

Sometimes you breathe in too fast. You make a funny sound, and it keeps happening. You have the hiccups! How do you stop them? Put sugar under your tongue. Eat some peanut butter. Or your friend can suddenly make a loud noise. The noise should surprise you. Surprises often stop hiccups.

Unit 16 Staying Safe

When a fire happens, follow these rules. ①Don't hide. Stay low and crawl. Go outside quickly. ②In a fire, don't use the elevator. Use the stairs. ③Be careful opening doors. If a door feels hot, find another one. ④When you are outside, call for help.

Remember the rules. Stay safe!
